Faculty Advising for Fall 2015

ORMS

Faculty Advising Week has been scheduled from Tuesday, March 31 to Tuesday, April 7, 2015.

You have a large range of courses from which to choose, and creating your class schedule will take some organization. ORMS students must meet with your faculty advisor in order to obtain your advising code to register for classes.

The Faculty Advisor for ORMS is Professor Righter.

Follow these simple steps to get ready to register for classes:

1. Look out for an email message from the IEOR/ORMS department regarding Tele-BEARS advising week.
2. Do some preliminary thinking about what courses to take.
3. Arrange a time to meet with your Professor Righter, Rrighter@ieor.berkeley.edu.
4. Bring the following item to faculty advising:
   - A copy of your ORMS degree checklist.
5. Get the adviser code from your faculty adviser.
6. Sign up for classes via Tele-BEARS during the Phase I and II appointment times.

NOTES: The College of Letters and Science (L&S) provides advisors for L&S undergraduates. There are two types of L&S advisors. First, L&S College advisors (206 Evans, 510-642-1483) will advise you on satisfaction of breadth requirements and will help you to find a major. Second, the ORMS Advisor will advise on applying to the major and can help with technical program planning ORMS: You should make an appointment with the Student Affairs Officer in 4145 Etcheverry for a FINAL DEGREE CHECK **

Check the registrar's Tele-BEARS guide for complete information on enrolling for classes.
